

- Do not create a new regulatory agency in Alabama or require all interested parties to answer to archaeologists.
- Respect maritime salvage laws and encourage individuals to inform the Historical Commission of relevant finds and to lend, give, or share their relics with museums for display in Alabama.
- Make sure the new bill is friendly to the citizens of Alabama, not as dictatorial and bossy as the current one. Do not try to turn the citizens and tax payers of the state into felons because they pursue their hobbies. The state should answer to the citizens.

This is all that comes to mind right now. I am enclosing several (places) where hobbies are being affected. Plea and other similar places) were necessary from the beginning. Th
